CEDAR RESTAURANT

Where: Washington D.C.

Located in Penn Quarter, Cedar Restaurant puts out eclectic, artsy entrees designed by executive chef Aaron McCloud. Some of that ingenuity starts on the rooftop where many of the ingredients, including edible flowers to dress up a salad, are grown. Whether it's a carrot-and-ginger puree and Burgundy pearl onions alongside grass-fed Angus beef or collards and a sweet potato tart with the Texas wild boar, there are plenty of options to dine with a green bent at Cedar.

Insider Tip: Go for the Chef's Tasting: five courses paired with wines for $110, beginning with a choice of white-chocolate and lobster soup or apples five ways.

Plan Your Trip: Visit Fodor's Washington, D.C. Guide
